

JUN 21 1955

Approved For Release 2003/12/02 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300010027-5

Ag 5
11

J. K. Collins, Attorney Here, Is Dead at 44

J. Kenneth Collins, 44, lawyer and native Washingtonian, died of a heart attack at his home Sunday.

Mr. Collins, who lived with his family at 2412 Seminary road, Silver Spring, was assigned to the USAF Special Investigations School in a supervisory capacity. He had been assigned there since 1950.

Mr. Collins

A graduate of Columbus University Law School, Mr. Collins served as special agent for the FBI from 1934 to 1936. During World War II, he served with the Office of Strategic Services, and later worked with the War Assets Administration.

Mr. Collins was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. John's Catholic Church, Forest Glen, Md., and of the Rosensteel Council, Knights of Columbus.

He is survived by his wife, Mary McCarthy Collins, and four daughters, Mary Teresa, 13; Helen, 14; Margaret, 12; and Eileen, 11, of the home address. Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Joseph I. Hogan, of 432 Oglethorpe st. nw., and two brothers, Thomas H. Collins of Richmond, and Ralph Collins of Columbus, Ga.

Funeral will be from Collins funeral home, 3821 14th st. nw., at 9:15 a. m. Wednesday. Requiem mass will be said at St. John's Church, Forest Glen, Md., at 10 a. m. and burial will be at Mount Olivet Cemetery.